Re: Report of the Civil Rules Advisory Committee

Introduction

* * * * *

Part I of this report presents action items. Part I A recommends transmission for approval of amendments to Civil Rules 6(e), 27, and 45, as well as Supplemental Rules B and C. These proposals were published for comment in August 2003. A new Rule 5.1 and conforming amendments to Rule 24(c) also were published last August, but the Advisory Committee has tabled discussion of these proposals for further work.

* * * * *

I Action Items

A. Rules for Adoption: 6(e), 27, 45; Supplemental Rules B, C

Rule 6(e)

The Advisory Committee recommends approval for adoption of amended Rule 6(e) as follows on the next page:

Rule 6. Time

(e) Additional Time After Certain Kinds of Service ~~Under Rule 5(b)(2)(B), (C), or (D).~~ Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings must or may act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon the party and the notice or paper is served upon the party service and service is made under Rule 5(b)(2)(B), (C), or (D), 3 days ~~shall be~~ are added to after the prescribed period would otherwise expire under subdivision (a).

Rule 6(e) is amended to remove any doubt as to the method for extending the time to respond after service by mail, leaving with the clerk of court, electronic means, or other means consented to by the party served. Three days are added after the prescribed period otherwise expires under Rule 6(a). Intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays are included in counting these added three days.

Rules App. C-2

If the third day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the last day to act is the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. The effect of invoking the day when the prescribed period would otherwise expire under Rule 6(a) can be illustrated by assuming that the thirtieth day of a thirty-day period is a Saturday. Under Rule 6(a) the period expires on the next day that is not a Sunday or legal holiday. If the following Monday is a legal holiday, under Rule 6(a) the period expires on Tuesday. Three days are then added — Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday as the third and final day to act. If the period prescribed expires on a Friday, the three added days are Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, which is the third and final day to act unless it is a legal holiday. If Monday is a legal holiday, the next day that is not a legal holiday is the third and final day to act.

Application of Rule 6(e) to a period that is less than eleven days can be illustrated by a paper that is served by mailing on a Friday. If ten days are allowed to respond, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays are excluded in determining when the period expires under Rule 6(a). If there is no legal holiday, the period expires on the Friday two weeks after the paper was mailed. The three added Rule 6(e) days are Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, which is the third and final day to act unless it is a legal holiday. If Monday is a legal holiday, the next day that is not a legal holiday is the final day to act.

Rule 6(e) as Published

This recommendation modifies the version of Rule 6(e) that was published for comment as follows:

(e) Additional Time After Certain Kinds of Service Under Rule 5(b)(2)(B), (C), or (D). Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings must or may ~~act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon the party and the notice or paper is served upon the party~~ service and service is made under Rule 5(b)(2)(B), (C), or (D), 3 days ~~shall be~~ are added to after the prescribed period.

The changes from the published version eliminate ambiguities that were detected in the published version. Since the primary purpose of the amendment is to eliminate ambiguities, recognizing that the actual number of days allowed is a secondary concern, the changes do not require republication.

Discussion

Publication of any day-counting amendment inevitably attracts suggestions that all the time periods in the rules should be reconsidered. Improvements are urged both in expression and in function. The most satisfactory approach to this large task is likely to involve all the sets of procedural rules, establishing uniform methods that can be relied upon in all federal-court settings. The Standing Committee has recognized these pleas; the long-range agenda includes a joint project to reconsider the time rules. Until that project matures, room remains for smaller-scale improvements in individual sets of rules. The Appellate Rules Committee is considering changes to Appellate Rule 26(c) to parallel the proposed Rule 6(e) changes — indeed, it was the Appellate Rules Committee that referred these questions to the Civil Rules Committee for consideration. The proposal made here reflects helpful advice and comments made by the Appellate Rules Committee and its Reporter, Professor Schiltz. Both Professor Schiltz and the Reporter to the Bankruptcy Rules Committee, Professor Morris, are in agreement with the approach the Civil Rules Committee is taking.

Cases and commentary have recognized four possible means of calculating the three days added by present Rule 6(e). Practicing attorneys report that much time is devoted to nervous counting and recounting the days. Achieving a clear answer is the first concern. In the abstract, there is much to be said for counting the three added days before the prescribed period is counted — the underlying theory is that a paper served by mail or the other means incorporated in Rule 6(e) may take up to three days to arrive. But an informal survey of practicing attorneys revealed that almost all add the three days at the end. Transition to a clear new rule will work best if the new rule conforms closely to what most attorneys have been doing anyway.

The premise that three days should be added at the end of the prescribed period could be implemented in different ways. The shortest extension would be provided by adding three days after counting the days in the original period without regard to any Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. If the last prescribed day is a Saturday, for example, day 1 would be Sunday, day 2 would be Monday even if Monday is a legal holiday, and day 3 would be Tuesday. The act would be due on Tuesday; in this illustration, the 3 added days would not extend the time to act. An intermediate extension could be provided by looking to the last day to act under Rule 6(a) before counting the three added days. In the example just given the original period would expire on Tuesday, the first day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday would be the three added days.

In determining how to express in the rule the method of calculating the addition of three days, the Civil Rules Committee has attempted to be clear, resolving the ambiguities that the public comment had pointed out; consistent with proposed Appellate Rule 26(c) and with the corresponding Bankruptcy Rules; and to provide the maximum time to act that meets these goals. The method of calculation that achieves all these objectives is to count to the end of the prescribed period under Rule 6(a), using all the time-counting rules except the three-day extension, and then add three days. The rule language set out above is clear and consistent with the Appellate Rules. After the end of the prescribed period is identified, three days are added. The Notes provide explicit direction on how to treat intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. The last day to act is the third day, unless the third day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. The last day to act in that case is the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.¹

This formulation is consistent with the Appellate Rule calculation and as generous as that consistency allows. Application is illustrated in the Committee Note. One way to explain the result is that no Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday is to be counted against more than one exclusion. Adoption of this recommendation reflects the view that such an extension will not often interfere with the real-world pace of litigation.

Rule 6(a) states that the last of the counted days is included in calculating time limits unless, among other things, the required act is filing a paper in court and the day is one on which weather or other conditions have made the clerk's office inaccessible. There is no

¹ In April 2004, the Civil Rules Committee agreed on language that would have excluded intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays in the calculation of the three days following the expiration of the prescribed period.

The full Committee has agreed unanimously to revise that language. The revision resulted from the recognition that the Committee mistakenly believed its approach was consistent with the approach of proposed Appellate Rule 26. The Appellate Rule approach is simply to count the prescribed period, making use of all of the timecounting rules save the three-day extension. After the end of the prescribed period is identified, three "real" (i.e., calendar) days are added. The effect of the language the Civil Rules Committee first adopted in April 2004 excluded intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays in calculating the three days, which was inconsistent with the Appellate Rules approach.

apparent reason to address this circumstance in Rule 6(e). If the clerk's office is inaccessible on the last day counted under Rule 6(e), the time to act is extended by Rule 6(a). Inaccessibility during the period before the last day counted under Rule 6(e) does not warrant any additional extension.

Changes Made After Publication and Comment

Changes were made to clarify further the method of counting the three days added after service under Rule 5(b)(2)(B), (C), or (D).

Summary of Comments

03-CV-001, Thomas J. Yerbich (Court Rules Attorney, D.Alaska):

(1) Suggests that Rule 6(a) should be amended to ensure that the three days added by Rule 6(e) do not convert all 10-day periods to 13-day periods: “(a) * * * When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 11 days determined without regard to subdivision (e), intermediate Saturdays * * *”

(2) Urges that a further change should be made to ensure that time is not extended too much, and computations are not complicated too much, for situations in which the period ends on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. If the period ends on a Saturday, for example, the three Rule 6(e) days should begin on Sunday, not Monday or the next day that is not a legal holiday. Possible confusion arises from referring to a “period” to act — the period ends not on Saturday but on Monday, implying that the three days are added after Monday. To fix this problem, substitute “number of days” for “period”:

Whenever a party must or may act within a prescribed period number of days after service and service is made under Rule 5(b)(2)(B), (C), or (D), 3 days are added after the period number of days [expires?].

(This comment includes several examples of ways to calculate in “business days” and “calendar days.”)

(3) Offers a proposal for the “counting backward” question — what happens if you must act “10 days before” a defined day and the tenth day before is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. May you file on Monday, or the next day that is not a legal holiday, even though it is less than 10 days before the defined day? The proposal relies on “not later than” to say that you must file before the 10th day:

(f) Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a period of time before a specified date or event prescribed or allowed by these rules, by the local rules of any district court, or by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the right must be exercised, the required act performed or the proceedings taken, not later than the prescribed time preceding the specified date or event.

03-CV-003, Professor Patrick J. Schiltz: Professor Schiltz describes a draft Committee Note for the parallel amendment of Appellate Rule 26(c), recommending the opposite answer to the question addressed by Comment 03-CV-001:

Under the amendment, a party that is required or permitted to act within a prescribed period should first calculate that period, without reference to the 3-day extension provided by Rule 26(c), but with reference to the other time computation provisions of the Appellate Rules. (For example, if the prescribed period is less than 11 days, the party should exclude intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, as instructed by Rule 26(a)(2). After the party has identified the date on which the prescribed period would expire but for the operation of Rule 26(c), the party should add 3 calendar days. The party must act by the third day of the extension, unless that day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, in which case the party must act by the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

To illustrate further: A paper is served by mail on Thursday, August 11, 2005. The prescribed time to respond is 30 days. Whether or not there are intervening legal holidays, the prescribed period ends on Monday, September 12 (because the 30th day falls on a Saturday, the prescribed period extends to the following Monday). Under Rule 26(c), three calendar days are added — Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday — and thus the response is due on Thursday, September 1, 2005.

(If the Appellate Rules version is adopted, it should be in the form approved by the Appellate Rules Committee.)

03-CV-007, S. Christopher Slatten, Esq.: Amended Rule 6(e) remains ambiguous. Do we add 3 “calendar days” or 3 “business days”? It would be good to emulate appellate Rule 26(c) by providing that “3 calendar days are added after the period.” If the period ends on Friday, for example, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday are the 3 days.

03-CV-008, State Bar of California Committee on Federal Courts: Supports the clarification.

03-CV-009, State Bar of Michigan Committee on United States Courts: (1) Federal time-counting rules are too complicated. A uniform set of rules, based on calendar weeks, should be substituted for Civil, Criminal, and Appellate Rules. (2) The Committee Note rejects the argument that the 3 added days are an independent period of less than 11 days, so that Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays are excluded. But the Rule remains ambiguous. It should say: “3 consecutive calendar days are added after the period.” (3) The rule remains ambiguous as to the time when the “prescribed period” ends. If the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, does it end only on the next day that is none of those? Clarity can be achieved by saying: “The 3 days must be added before determining whether the last day of the period falls on a day that requires extension under Rule 6(a).”

03-CV-011, Peter D. Keisler, Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division, U.S. Department of Justice: Suggests one addition: “3 calendar days are added after the period.” “[T]his addition will make absolutely clear the Committee’s intention that parties include weekends and holidays when counting the three extra days.”

03-CV-012, Alex Manners, CompuLaw: Ambiguities remain. First, the 3 additional days should be described as “calendar days,” to ensure that Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays are counted. Second, it may be uncertain when a period ends if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. Are the 3 days added after the last day to act if there were no extension? This can be made clear by adding this at the end: “If the original period is less than 11 days, the original period is subject to Rule 6(a), whereby holidays and weekends are excluded from the computation, and then three calendar days are added.”

03-CV-013, Federal Magistrate Judges Assn., by Hon. Louisa S. Porter: Supports the proposal. But time calculations under Rule 6 are still “rather complex,” and indeed “border on being labyrinthian and require ‘finger counting,’ a very fallible method.” The Standing Committee and Advisory Committee should “revisit Rule 6 in its entirety with an eye toward promulgating a rule based in ‘running time’ tied to a calendar week or multiples thereof.”

Rule 27(a)(2)

The Advisory Committee recommends approval for adoption of amended Rule 27(a)(2) as follows:

10 FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule 27. Depositions Before Action or Pending Appeal

1 (a) Before Action.

2 * * * * *

3 ~~(2) Notice and Service.~~ The petitioner shall thereafter
4 serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as 5 an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the 6 petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court,
7 at a time and place named therein, for the order described 8 in the petition. At least 20 days before the date of 9 hearing the notice shall be served either within or without 10 the district or state in the manner provided in Rule 4(d)
11 for service of summons; but if such service cannot with 12 due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party 13 named in the petition, the court may make such order as 14 is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall 15 appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in 16 Rule 4(d), an attorney who shall represent them, and, in

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 11

17 ~~case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-~~
18 ~~examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is~~ 19 ~~a minor or incompetent the provisions of Rule 17(c)~~
20 ~~apply.~~

21 (2) Notice and Service. At least 20 days before the 22 hearing date, the petitioner must serve each expected
23 adverse party with a copy of the petition and a notice
24 stating the time and place of the hearing. The notice may 25 be served either inside or outside the district or state in 26 the manner provided in Rule 4. If that service cannot be 27 made with due diligence on an expected adverse party,
28 the court may order service by publication or otherwise.
29 The court must appoint an attorney to represent persons
30 not served in the manner provided by Rule 4 and to cross-
31 examine the deponent if an unserved person is not 32 otherwise represented. Rule 17(c) applies if any expected 33 adverse party is a minor or is incompetent.

Committee Note

The outdated cross-reference to former Rule 4(d) is corrected to incorporate all Rule 4 methods of service. Former Rule 4(d) has been allocated to many different subdivisions of Rule 4. Former Rule 4(d) did not cover all categories of defendants or modes of service, and present Rule 4 reaches further than all of former Rule 4. But there is no reason to distinguish between the different categories of defendants and modes of service encompassed by Rule 4. Rule 4 service provides effective notice. Notice by such means should be provided to any expected adverse party that comes within Rule 4.

Other changes are made to conform Rule 27(a)(2) to current style conventions.

Rule 27(a)(2) as Published

Only style changes are made to the version of Rule 27(a)(2) that was published for comment in August 2003. The changes are indicated on the published version by overstriking words deleted and double-underlining words added:

~~(2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least 20 days~~

~~before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the district or state in the manner provided in Rule 4(d) for service of summons; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Rule 4(d), an attorney who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent the provisions of Rule 17(c) apply.~~

(2) Notice and Service. At least 20 days before the hearing date, the petitioner must serve each expected adverse party with a copy of the petition and a notice stating the time and place of the hearing on the petition. The notice may be served either inside or outside the district or state in the manner provided in Rule 4. If that service cannot be made with due diligence on an expected adverse party, the court may order service by publication or otherwise. The court must appoint an attorney to represent persons not served in the manner provided in Rule 4 and to cross-examine the deponent on behalf of persons not served and if an unserved person is not otherwise represented. Rule 17(c) applies if any expected adverse party is a minor or is incompetent.

Discussion

Only style changes are recommended in the published draft. The few public comments all support the proposal as published.

Changes Made After Publication and Comment

Only style changes are recommended in the published draft.

03-CV-002 Jack E. Horsley, Esq.: The Rule 27 amendment is prudent.

03-CV-008, State Bar of California Committee on Federal Courts:
Supports the published amendment.

03-CV-013, Federal Magistrate Judges Assn., by Hon. Louisa S Porter: Supports the changes. The style changes bring “much greater clarity.”

The Advisory Committee recommends approval for adoption of amended Rule 45(a)(2) as follows:

1 (a) Form; Issuance.

* * * * *

~~(2) A subpoena commanding attendance at a trial or hearing shall issue from the court for the district in which the hearing or trial is to be held. A subpoena for attendance at a deposition shall issue from the court for the district designated by the notice of deposition as the district in which the deposition is to be taken. If separate~~

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 15

9 from a subpoena commanding the attendance of a person;
10 a subpoena for production or inspection shall issue from 11 the court for the district in which the production or 12 inspection is to be made.

13 (2) A subpoena must issue as follows:

14 (A) for attendance at a trial or hearing, from the court
15 for the district where the trial or hearing is to be held;

16 (B) for attendance at a deposition, from the court for 17 the district where the deposition is to be taken, stating 18 the method for recording the testimony; and

19 (C) for production and inspection, if separate from a 20 subpoena commanding a person's attendance, from 21 the court for the district where the production or 22 inspection is to be made.

23 * * * * *

Committee Note

This amendment closes a small gap in regard to notifying witnesses of the manner for recording a deposition. A deposition subpoena must state the method for recording the testimony.

Rule 30(b)(2) directs that the party noticing a deposition state in the notice the manner for recording the testimony, but the notice need not be served on the deponent. The deponent learns of the recording method only if the deponent is a party or is informed by a party. Rule 30(b)(3) permits another party to designate an additional method of recording with prior notice to the deponent and the other parties. The deponent thus has notice of the recording method when an additional method is designated. This amendment completes the notice provisions to ensure that a nonparty deponent has notice of the recording method when the recording method is described only in the deposition notice.

A subpoenaed witness does not have a right to refuse to proceed with a deposition due to objections to the manner of recording. But under rare circumstances, a nonparty witness might have a ground for seeking a protective order under Rule 26(c) with regard to the manner of recording or the use of the deposition if recorded in a certain manner. Should such a witness not learn of the manner of recording until the deposition begins, undesirable delay or complication might result. Advance notice of the recording method affords an opportunity to raise such protective issues.

Other changes are made to conform Rule 45(a)(2) to current style conventions.

Rule 45(a)(2) as Published

A single style change has been made in each of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) to reflect Style Subcommittee decisions made after publication in August 2003. The change is shown in the proposal as published by overstriking words deleted and double-underlining words added:

Rule 45. Subpoena(a) Form; Issuance.

~~(2) A subpoena commanding attendance at a trial or hearing shall issue from the court for the district in which the hearing or trial is to be held. A subpoena for attendance at a deposition shall issue from the court for the district designated by the notice of deposition as the district in which the deposition is to be taken. If separate from a subpoena commanding the attendance of a person, a subpoena for production or inspection shall issue from the court for the district in which the production or inspection is to be made.~~

(2) A subpoena must issue as follows:

(A) for attendance at a trial or hearing, in the name of from the court for the district where the trial or hearing is to be held;

(B) for attendance at a deposition, in the name of from the court for the district where the deposition is to be taken, stating the method for recording the testimony; and

(C) for production and inspection, if separate from a subpoena commanding a person's attendance, in the name of from the court for the district where the production or inspection is to be made.

Discussion

There were few comments on this proposal. A recommendation for adoption seems warranted for the reasons described in the Committee Note.

Changes Made After Publication and Comment

Only a small style change has been made in the proposal as published.

Summary of Comments: Rule 45

03-CV-006, Eugene F. Hestres, Esq.: The notice of taking the deposition states the method of recording and normally is served on a nonparty deponent. "Requiring that the Notice of the deposition be also served upon the non-party deponent would eliminate the need to amend Rule 45." Requiring that the subpoena state the method may create problems when a last-minute change is made in the method of recording. The deponent can always object.

03-CV-008, State Bar of California Committee on Federal Courts: Supports the published proposal.

03-CV-013, Federal Magistrate Judges Assn., by Hon. Louisa S Porter: Supports the proposal.

SUPPLEMENTAL RULES FOR CERTAIN ADMIRALTY AND MARITIME CLAIMS

The Advisory Committee recommends approval for adoption of amended Supplemental Rule B(1)(a) as follows:

Rule B. In Personam Actions: Attachment and Garnishment

(1) When Available; Complaint, Affidavit, Judicial

Authorization, and Process. In an in personam action:

(a) If a defendant is not found within the district when a verified complaint praying for attachment and the affidavit required by Rule B(1)(b) are filed, a verified complaint may contain a prayer for process to attach the defendant's tangible or intangible personal property — up to the amount sued for — in the hands of garnishees named in the process.

* * * * *

Committee Note

Rule B(1) is amended to incorporate the decisions in Heidmar, Inc. v. Anomina Ravennate Di Armamento Sp.A. of Ravenna, 132 F.3d 264, 267-268 (5th Cir. 1998), and Navieros InterAmericanos,

S.A. v. M/V Vasilis Express, 120 F.3d 304, 314-315 (1st Cir. 1997). The time for determining whether a defendant is “found” in the district is set at the time of filing the verified complaint that prays for attachment and the affidavit required by Rule B(1)(b). As provided by Rule B(1)(b), the affidavit must be filed with the complaint. A defendant cannot defeat the security purpose of attachment by appointing an agent for service of process after the complaint and affidavit are filed. The complaint praying for attachment need not be the initial complaint. So long as the defendant is not found in the district, the prayer for attachment may be made in an amended complaint; the affidavit that the defendant cannot be found must be filed with the amended complaint.

Supplemental Rule C

The Advisory Committee recommends approval for adoption of amended Supplemental Rule C(6)(b) as follows:

C. In Rem Actions: Special Provisions

* * * * *

(6) Responsive Pleading; Interrogatories.

* * * * *

(b) Maritime Arrests and Other Proceedings. In an in rem action not governed by Rule C(6)(a):

(i) a person who asserts a right of possession or any ownership interest in the property that is the subject of the action must file a verified statement of right or interest:

(A) within 10 days after the earlier of (1) the execution of process, or (2) completed publication of notice under Rule C(4), or

(B) within the time that the court allows;

22 FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- 14 (ii) the statement of right or interest must describe the 15 interest in the property that supports the person's 16 demand for its restitution or right to defend the action;
17 (iii) an agent, bailee, or attorney must state the 18 authority to file a statement of right or interest on 19 behalf of another; and 20 (iv) a person who asserts a right of possession or any 21 ownership interest must serve an answer within 20
22 days after filing the statement of interest or right.

23 * * * * *

Committee Note

Rule C(6)(b)(i)(A) is amended to delete the reference to a time 10 days after completed publication under Rule C(4). This change corrects an oversight in the amendments made in 2000. Rule C(4) requires publication of notice only if the property that is the subject of the action is not released within 10 days after execution of process. Execution of process will always be earlier than publication.
